PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Circa 1932 and styled a "four-square" or "Leaside" home, this property has been in the hands of the current owners for the past 42 years!

Original woodwork and interior trim has been preserved. This home features four bedrooms, all with windows on two corners. Hardwood floors exist below the carpet on both the main and second floors. The main floor features a large and spacious living room, formal dining room, cozy study and kitchen. The "loft" has dormers front and back and was used for storage but could be finished and enlarged to accommodate extra living space.

The grandeur of this property and street is unsurpassed in Whitby. The property is located just south of the Centennial Building and within walking distance to all of downtown Whitby. The area is populated with numerous Century Homes.
